

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

राष्ट्रीय महिला आयोग

January, 2024

The 32nd Foundation Day of the National Commission for Women was celebrated in Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi, with Hon'ble Union Minister Smriti Irani and other dignitaries present. The event featured an exhibition by Women Artisans, cultural dance performance, and speeches highlighting women's empowerment initiatives. Hon'ble Union Minister Ms. Smriti Irani and Hon'ble Chairperson Ms. Rekha Sharma emphasized the importance of women in the nation's progress and NCW's role during the pandemic. The celebration drew a diverse crowd, reaffirming commitment to women's rights. Representatives from various Embassies, Judicial Officers, Armed Forces personnel, State Women Commissions, Vice-Chancellors, Advocates, and Students from different regions also participated.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

National Commission for Women convened the "Panchayat Se Parliament" program at the venerable Central Hall of the Parliament of India on 5th January, 2024, in association with Institute of Constitutional and Parliamentary Studies, New Delhi. The event welcomed the participation of approx 500 women representatives from Panchayati Raj Institutions and Urban Local Bodies nationwide. The primary objective of this initiative was to foster awareness regarding Constitutional Provisions, Democratic values, and the Panchayati Raj System. Distinguished dignitaries, including the Hon'ble Speaker of the Lok Sabha, the Hon'ble Chairperson of the National Commission for Women, and various esteemed members of Parliament, graciously shared their invaluable insights and experiences with the elected women representatives, thereby enriching the discourse and reinforcing the program's significance.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

The National Commission for Women and the National Law University, Odisha collaborated for a Law Review Consultation on the topic of 'Rights of Women under Property Laws' in Cuttack on January 12, 2024. Productive deliberations, spearheaded by Mr. Sanjay Kumar Mishra, Former Chief Justice of Jharkhand High Court and co-chaired by Prof. Dr. Ved Kumari, Vice Chancellor, National Law University, Odisha comprehensively addressed pivotal facets pertaining to women's property rights.

The NCW organised regional conference on January 18, 2024, at the Assam Administrative Staff College in Guwahati, Assam, marked a significant collaborative endeavor between the NCW, the WCD and state commissions for women across the North East region. The conference convened with the objective of fostering discussions geared towards empowering women and advancing their rights and well-being. During the event, Hon'ble Chairperson of the NCW, emphasized the unique challenges confronting women in the North Eastern states, notably trafficking and substance abuse. The primary focus of the conference was to address these pressing issues comprehensively, with the ultimate aim of facilitating the holistic development of women in the region.

The National Commission for Women, in collaboration with the Punjab Police, organised a three-day training initiative at the Punjab Police Academy from January 8th to 10th, 2024. The program was specifically designed to focus on Gender Sensitization and Forensic Science Training.

NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

A productive meeting was presided over by the Hon'ble Chairperson of the National Commission for Women at the One Stop Centre in Srinagar, dedicated to the thorough examination of the progress achieved by the Special Cells in Jammu and Kashmir. The coordinator of the Special Cell within the Kashmir Division, along with personnel from the One Stop Centre, were present for the deliberations.

On Republic Day, the National Commission for Women (NCW) reaffirms its commitment to safeguarding women's rights, acknowledging their vital role in upholding constitutional values. This occasion serves as an inspiration for ongoing efforts toward equality and empowerment. NCW remains steadfast in its mission, advocating for gender equality and ensuring that every woman's voice is heard and respected.

Nari Shakti takes Center Stage on Republic Day 2024

NARI SHAKTI AT KARTAVYA PATH

The Republic Day 2024 highlights the leadership of Nari Shakti in propelling us towards a developed India by 2047.